

Scenes from the Shipping Festival Service at Winchester Cathedral on the evening of 19th June 2008

The Captain, Leslie Morris, welcomes the Mayor of Winchester, The Mayor and Mayoress of Southampton and the High Sheriff of Hampshire at the West Door.

Stowaway Mrs Mary Fagan, Lord Lieutenant of Hampshire, inspects the Flag Party drawn from the local units of the Sea Cadet Corps and the Branch Standard Bearer of the Association of WRNS. She is accompanied by the Marshal of Parade, Lieutenant (SCC) Julia Whorwood RNR.

The Volunteer Band of HMS Nelson, directed by Band Colour Sergeant Doug Scott LRCM RM, continue to entertain the congregation in the Deanery Garden afterwards.

Sea Cadet Adam Becket couldn't resist a taster of the delicious looking canapés that he was supposed to be serving. Probably set to follow in the footsteps of his dad Noel, a Southampton Pilot who, like most of his profession, would never turn up the chance of a quick bite to eat.

Happy Birthday to You

Officers, members and guests toast Stowaway Rear Admiral Sir Morgan Morgan-Giles who was 94 on the day.
